

Inside Ag

CSU Ag Day Annual BBQ Celebrates Colorado Agriculture

Celebrate the state's bounty by attending the 27th Annual CSU Ag Day BBQ! Come enjoy food grown or processed from the mountains to the plains of Colorado. Colorado agricultural producers will prepare a beautiful harvest of quality Colorado food for 3,500 hungry people. The barbecue is Saturday, September 6, 2008, 11:00am-1pm in the parking lot south of Hughes Stadium in Fort Collins.

Ag Day offers the finest food and beverages, including apples, beans, beef, beer, cheese, ice cream, lamb, melons, milk, pork, potatoes, sweet corn, and wheat bread. And when you're done savoring the taste of Colorado-grown food, you can pick up a plant to remind you of the food, fun, and football game that make Ag Day special. After the feast you can watch the CSU Rams battle Sacramento State University on the football field.

Order tickets early as BBQ attendance is limited. BBQ tickets are $20 each or a football/BBQ combination is available for $45. Discounts are available for online orders. In addition to great food and fun you also have the chance to win two round-trip airline tickets to any city that Frontier flies including Mexico and Alaska. The winner will be announced during the football game.

Ag Day is hosted by Colorado agricultural organizations and associations along with Colorado State University's College of Agricultural Sciences and Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. This is a nonprofit event with Ag Day proceeds furnishing scholarships to Colorado State University agricultural students.

For more information or to purchase tickets, visit www.csuagday.com.